COMMERCIAL EVIDENCES OF SPRING.

ladies do not have to lonk six ward for signs of spring, for the signs which please them are all hand-made and are to be found in the stores which are made up to date and attractive by fine fabrics and the designs of fashion. Beautiful fabrics sing of spring for them as well as the pretry the sweet and alluring flowers of the

The gentlemen, even, cannot look into the store windows without paying to the season's styles in dress and bead and foot genr. The stores of Norwich just now are filled with the evidences of spring and invite liberal natronage. The milliners openings are wonderful in their vari ety and charm, and all have pleasurable surprises for both sexes.

And, by the way, what advertises , city more favorably or freely than its said to be overwhelmingly for Roosewell-dressed ladies and gentlemen? Brees, to be sure, speaks for our tastes and our resources, our intelligence and progressiveness. It is the well-dressed wowd that marks the up-to-date city that impresses those who behald it Whether the citizens of Norwich ar as the merropolls, the seashere or th mountains, or even crossing the ocean, it is the output of Norwich stores which speak for seconting taste and the enterprise of the Ruse of New Emeland."

It is these acadences of the changing seasons in the stores which extend the one of trade of Narwich and make b Il popular center for trade,

IRREGULAR CAMPAIGNING.

After three weeks of strenuous eamthe outlook must be anything but uraging to the ex-president when cess bureau's work, the frosty reing trend of delegates to Taft, and the statement by friends that he startone late and the opposition has the half have shown that when an expresident does a somersault in his statements to the people, they have little respect for his utterances, especially if he attempts to break down any of the rock-bound precedents established many years ago. Do the best they could against the lighty wave of feeling, the last ditc. truggle of the Roosevelt managers has been futile and unsatisfactory. Ir the west where such strongth was noked for, the results failed to measre up to the claims. Taft clubs have been, and are springing up from ocean to ocean, and the president's name much so that the women in states where they have the right of suffrage are joining in the chorus. The Yale Medical School catalogue, out this week, announces a new me ed of course arrangement, with Blumer says: "Heretofore, the ma-jority of the medical subjects have continued throughout the entire year It is now planned in such courses concentrate more, and whereas su-courses recited two or three times day for the whole school year, no they are to come every day for o term only." It is in the nature of experiment at Yale, but is similar method to that at Johns Hopkins and other large medical schools, and se far as tried here during the present session has been encouraging, The combination of an academic-modical course is still offered, but this six-year course will only be open those who enter the medical depart ment without conditions. During the year Yale medical has been officially registered in New York state and stu-

registered in New York state and stu-ients will now have no trouble in obtaining advanced standing at Co-iumbia and Cornell.

The catalogue shows the medical school registrations to be as follows: Soniors 51, juntors 11, sophomores 10, freshmen 11, a total of 65, twenty less thin last year,

The senior student council of the cademic department has laid be-ore the university this week a numer of suggestions looking toward the levelopment of certain undergraduate ctivities and the cufbing of others. The council asked opinions on three things: I. For the general purpose of raising scholarship, that at the end of each term the names of a certain number of high stand men of each class in the college be published in the order of their ranking. 2, That some plan of singing, led by the senior members of the glee club, be arranged by the university orchestra several years ago, be also arranged. 2, On the question of limiting by some definite ystem or by sentiment on the pur men who aspire to them, of imber of offices that a man may be is believed, in view of the exist-ing conditions, where less than hal be class are engaged in extra-currices aplece, that these offices c be distributed among a larger num-ber to the better advantage of all. In regard to regulating the secuhas its value in points, above a cer-tain number of which the candidate for lumers cannot go, has been suggested. On the other hand, there is a strong sentiment in favor of leaving the limitation to public sentiment,
